Escape the city without giving up convenience on this incredible 32-acre property off County Road 329 in Floresville. Fully fenced and loaded with mature trees, this beautiful piece of South Texas land offers the perfect mix of privacy, usability, and opportunity. With a blend of wooded areas and open clearings, the property is ready for whatever you can imagine - build your dream home, create a weekend retreat, bring your animals, start a homestead, or invest for the future. One of the biggest advantages? No building restrictions. Whether you want a custom home, barndominium, manufactured home, or recreational getaway, the possibilities are wide open. Enjoy peaceful country living while staying just minutes from downtown Floresville, local schools, H-E-B, restaurants, and charming boutique shopping. Plus, you're only about 30 minutes from San Antonio, making this an ideal location for commuters or anyone wanting more space without feeling disconnected from the city. Properties like this that are unrestricted, usable acreage in a prime location are becoming harder and harder to find. Come experience the freedom and potential this South Texas property has to offer.
